Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

As we celebrate together the year end with festivities, we pray 2020 would be a year filled with blessings and overwhelmed with peace and joy. May our eyes be open and our steps guided towards the kingdom of God.

During this holiday season, as we find ourselves busy with preparations and plans, I invite you to take control of your goals for the coming year, whether spiritual, social, or personal.

Standing in the gap, so millions may know Christ

Testimonies:

A young man from Egypt suffered from suicidal thoughts and wanted to end his life, as he felt the control of higher powers. He was hopeless until he called Alkarma, begging for any kind of relief from his misery. He received the gospel message, spiritual mentorship and counseling. This young man experienced healing and full deliverance from evil thoughts; he is now a child of God, eager to learn more about the bible and God's love for him.

When Tala got run over by a drunk driver, she suffered skull fractures which led her to endure a yearlong coma. After months of surgeries, rehabilitation and keeping her head in a metal skull to cover the brain, Alkarma team was praying daily for her recovery, as a request from her mother. Bit by bit, Tala was regaining her speech, her motor skills and her awareness of people around her; and just when her mother never thought her daughter would be able to work again, Alkarma staff prayed for this wish and the Lord answered the prayers. Tala is God's miracle to her family and a living proof that we serve a living God.
